HE DIVED TO DEATH

Leap by a Frightened Guest in a Burning Hotel

TWO OTHER INMATES HURT

Niames Damage Clark's Hotel in Boston A Man Falls From a Fire Escape and Is Killed.

Boston, Mass., March 30.-Clark's hotel on Washington street was badly damaged by fire, which broke out at 4 o'clock a. m. The guests swoke to find themselves enveloped in smoke, and became punic-stricken, and three of them were injured. Ernest W. Perry, of Leominster, Mass, received internal injuries which resulted in his death soon after he was taken to the hospital. Thomas W. Southworth, of Cambridgeport, had both legs broken; Mr. Stockwell, of Laconia, N. H., had one leg broken. A number of other guests were bruised.

Narrow Escape of Firemen. There were about fifty guests in the hotel, among them the members of the Shenandoah Company. Three members of engine 25 had a parrow escape from death. They were precipitated into the front basement by the giving way of the grating protecting the base-ment window. The cellar was a mass of flames and for the moment it seemed as if the men must be burned to death. They were safely rescued, however, although in an exhausted condition. Frantic Efforts to Escape.

The guests in the hotel had fire escapes in the rooms-ropes with attachments for sliding down-but they were too bewildered to use them. A rush was made for the fire escapes on Avery place. It took some few minutes before the excited throng could get the escape in working order, and then commenced the scramble cown the rounds. It was during this descent that Mr. Perry met with the accident which caused his death. He either jumped or was pushed from the ladder when he had reached the level of the third story.

Mr. Southwerth's Injuries.

While rushing about in search of an artificiant the huming holding. Mr.

exit from the burning building, Mr. Bouthworth mistook the opening of the slevator well, and fell down three stories. lighting on top of the elevator, where he was found in an unconscious condition by the firemen when they got into the place. So rapidly did the flames spread that it was impossible for the guests to save anything, some of them barely having time enough to dress. In the attics were six chambermaids, who were, with some difficulty, rescued by the firemen and assisted down the ladlers to the street.

The Loss. The loss on the burned building, shich is owned by Edward Banga, is stimated at $25,000. The lessee, Marms C. Clark, suffers a loss of $20,000; nsured. Charles Green & Co., tailors, 35 Washington street, lose from $5,000 io $10,000 by smoke and water; partially bsured.
